

BEFORE THE FLORIDA PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

In re: Complaint of BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. against Supra Telecommunications and Information Systems, Inc., for Resolution of Billing Disputes.

Docket No. 001097-TP

Filed: February 8, 2002

SUPRA'S MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE DIRECT TESTIMONY ONE DAY LATE

SUPRA TELECOMMUNICATIONS & INFORMATION SYSTEMS, INC. ("Supra"), by and through its undersigned counsel, hereby moves the Commission for Leave to file the direct testimony in this proceeding one day late, and as grounds therefore states:

1. Supra realized late in the afternoon that portions of its direct testimonies contained information that BellSouth may consider confidential. And in an effort to mitigate divulging information that BellSouth may consider confidential, Supra proceeded to redact this information which resulted in Supra missing the dateline for filing its direct testimony.

2. Supra arrived at the Filing Office approximately 5:05 p.m., since the office was closed, Supra proceeded to slip a copy of its Notice for Filing under the door.

3. Attached hereto are copies of Supra's direct testimonies that Supra shall deposit in the Commission drop box by the Easely Building.

4. Supra has timely served copies of its direct testimony to BellSouth (via Federal Express); and Supra believes that BellSouth would not be unfairly prejudiced should Supra be granted leave to file its direct testimony one day late.
