BUREAU OF
COMPETITIVE SERVICES

Dear Mr. Williams:

Pursuant to our conversation earlier today regarding the dissolution date of B&L's operations, the actual cessation of all pay phone services were December 31, 2001.

Thank you for your inquiry and assistance in this matter.

Very truly yours,

Larry Perruzza

Dear Ms. Bayo:

Reference your correspondence of Feb. 26, 2002. This serves to notify you that as of February 28, 2002 our public payphones vending operations were discontinued in its entirety. Since our operations lasted for only a part of the year I wondered if there would be a partial rebate for the abbreviated year. It would be gratefully welcome at this particular time.

Thank you for your consideration and assistance.

Both companies owe the 2002 RAF. If they did not provide a date certain of when the 2002 RAF would be paid, then I need to contact them (meaning a docket should not be opened at this time).

We received copy of letter from GCL/McLean to CMI with deposit information on it for 2001 RAFs with P & I. Across the letter is the word CANCEL. Do you want me to open a docket to cancel?

We also, have a letter from Larry Perruzza (TG820) notifying us that as of 2/28/02 operations were discontinued. Are they paid up?
