Enclosed is a check for 50.<sup>00</sup>, my attorney informed me I am not liable for it as the company does not exist and I am no longer part of it. However I am leaving the state and will be in North Carolina when you get this, so I won't be taking the state to court and let a judge decide. at this time I consider this matter closed and there will be no more correspondence pertaining to it.

I want to thank you for your personal courtesy in this matter.

Mr. George R. Smith, President
Ring Out Communications, Inc.
PO Box 73
Pinellas Park, FL 33780-0073

Dear Mr. Smith:

This is a follow up to our previous correspondence. I can certainly understand your belief that you should not have to pay the 2001 Regulatory Assessment Fee (RAF) since you never started operations. Unfortunately, a minimum payment is still due even if no business was ever transacted. A copy of pages 8 through 10 of your application is attached.

Before we establish a docket to cancel the certificate on the Commission's own motion for violation of the RAF rule, I wanted to touch base with you one last time to avoid the RAF being turned over to a collection agency. As information, if a certificate is cancelled on the Commission's own motion for a rule violation, any balance owed is forwarded to the Comptroller's Office for further collection efforts.

Please let me know if you have any questions. I can be reached at (850) 413-6502-voice, (850) 413-6503-fax, by internet e-mail at pisler@psc.state.fl.us, or at the above address.

The termination of this company was not voluntary the state terminated it before it ever got started because they assessed it for $150.<sup>00</sup> for the two weeks it existed in the year 2000 which I did not know about then the first notice I had of this $150.<sup>00</sup> they added another 4 or five hundred dollars penalty to it. If this was not paid they were going to terminate the company, so as shaky as the pay telephone business is I left them terminate it rather than invest any more money in it. There never was one phone put out or any business done, not one penny of business transacted. I feel as if I owe any money to the state at this time.

Dear Mr. Smith:

The Commission has received your recent correspondence with what appears to be a request for cancellation.

The effective date of a voluntary cancellation is the date the Commission received the company's request for cancellation. In this case, the Commission received your request in December 2001, therefore, the company will only owe the 2001 Regulatory Assessment Fee (RAF). The 2001 RAF form is enclosed.

Once the 2001 RAF is paid (due by January 30, 2002), then the Commission will voluntarily cancel the certificate with an effective date of December 31, 2001. If you have any questions, just let me know. I can be reached at (850) 413-6502-voice, (850) 413-6503-fax, by internet e-mail at pisler@psc.state.fl.us, or at the address below.
