Statement of Reasons for Name Change

This case does not constitute a traditional name change but instead, constitutes a change in the form of the entity owning the Utility assets. That entity is being converted from a Limited Partnership (Ltd.) to a Limited Liability Corporation (L.L.C.). The name of the Utility, with the exception of the designation of the type of entity at the end of the name (change from Ltd. to L.L.C.), will remain unchanged. Because this name change is minor and will result in little if any confusion, the Customer Notice has been kept simplistic to avoid further confusion on the part of the customers. The change in form of entity and resulting name change is undertaken for other corporate, liability and tax reasons.
