Ms. Haddad,

I have no objection to extending the deadline for resolution of the complaints to no later than June 21, 2002. I will be in contact with our Division of Consumer Affairs staff in the interim to monitor the company's progress in the successful resolution of these complaints.

Dear Ms. Watts:

I am in receipt today of your May 17, 2002 letter regarding the remaining unresolved consumer complaints. Your letter sets forth a May 31, 2002 deadline for resolution of these complaints. Pursuant to our telephone conversation, in light of the upcoming holiday and a conflicting travel schedule immediately thereafter, we ask that you extend this deadline until Friday, June 21, 2002.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Regards,

Loubna W. Haddad
