Re: North American Telephone Network, LLC – Application for Interexchange Authority

Dear Mr. Williams:

North American Telephone Network, LLC (“NATN”), by its attorneys, hereby files an original and six (6) copies of its application to provide interexchange telecommunications service within the State of Florida.¹ We have enclosed a check in the amount of $250.00 to cover the application fee. In addition, we have enclosed a letter describing the changes NATN has instituted in order to ensure that it remains in compliance with all Florida Public Service Commission rules and regulations. Please date stamp and return the enclosed extra copy of the application in the envelope provided.

Respectfully submitted,

WILKINSON BARKER KNAUER, LLP

¹ As described in NATN’s application, NATN previously held authority to provide interexchange telecommunications service in Florida under Certificate No. 4460. This authority was cancelled effective November 5, 2001 by Order No. PSC-01-2173-CO-TI for failure to pay Regulatory Assessment Fees. These fees will be paid in full (plus penalties and interest) on June 12, 2002.
