Double Link Communications, Inc. is not buying network time from any telecommunications company. We plan on purchasing time from Verizon, Bellsouth as well as Sprint. We are in the process of contacting them regarding the deposits for each carrier.

There are no total sales for Double Link Communications, Inc. at this time.

I am the company liaison for Pinnacle Telcom, Inc. The two companies share an office, as well as business lines. Market

According to FCC statistics, total revenue from local exchange services in the United States was approximately $101 billion in 1996. Two years after the Telcom Act established a competitive framework for local competition, more than 100 CLECs have raised approximately $14 billion, on an average of $140 million each in capital, and have signed 2,400 interconnection agreements. Although CLECs as a whole have tripled their customer lines in service in 1997 from .5 million to 1.5 million; CLECs currently account for only 2.6% of all local telephone revenues.
