TAC. On November 5, 2001, we issued Order No. PSC-01-2154-PAA-TP, approving the transaction and the name change and assignment of Alternative Local Exchange (ALEC) Certificate No. 4804, Interexchange Telecommunications (IXC) Certificate No. 4850, and Alternative Access Vendor (AAV) Certificate No. 4707. On December 13, 2001, we issued Consummating Order No. PSC-01-2437-CO-TP to acknowledge that Order No. PSC-01-2154-PAA-TP had become effective and final.

The proposed transaction was never completed because the financing for TAC to purchase Teligent out of bankruptcy was never obtained. The company informed our staff by letter dated January 18, 2002, that the transaction was never completed and that the company continued to operate as Teligent. Teligent requested that the portion of Order No. PSC-01-2154-PAA-TP approving the assignment of the certificates and the name change be vacated so that Teligent could continue to operate under its original name until the transaction was finalized. Teligent requested that the approval granted for the transaction remain in effect since the company was still working to close the transaction and transfer Teligent's operations to TAC. On March 14, 2002, we issued Order No. PSC-02-0344-FOF-TP vacating in part Order No. PSC-01-2154-PAA-TP and Consummating Order No. PSC-01-2437-CO-TP.

We were informed by letter dated May 30, 2002, that the TAC transaction would not be consummated, and the company had developed a plan of reorganization that would enable it to emerge from bankruptcy as the same legal entity. By a second letter dated May 30, 2002, the company requested that any transfer of certificates to TAC and any consent for the transaction granted by the Commission be vacated. On May 31, 2002, the docket was reopened so that we could address the company's request. Per the company's request, we find it appropriate to vacate Order No. PSC-01-2154-PAA-TP and Consummating Order No. PSC-01-02437-CO-TP in their entirety.

We are vested with jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to Sections 364.335, 364.337, and 364.345, Florida Statutes.
