the testimony of BellSouth's witnesses at the final hearing regarding the proprietary and/or confidential information is pertinent and material to a fair resolution in the instant docket.

3. Pursuant to agreement between all parties, written copies of the proprietary and confidential information that is to be used in the hearing will be submitted to Commissioners, necessary staff and the court reporter in folders clearly marked with the nature of the contents. Also, Petitioners' witnesses have been cautioned to avoid verbalizing such information in such a way that would compromise the confidential nature of the information. When reasonably possible, all such information will be presented by written exhibit only. At the conclusion of the portion of the hearing that involves proprietary and confidential information, all copies of the exhibits shall be returned to the proffering party. Further, if a confidential exhibit has been admitted into evidence, the copy provided to the court reporter shall be retained in the Division of Commission Clerk and Administrative Services confidential files.

Respectfully submitted,
