RE: Docket No. 020640-SU - Application for certificate to provide wastewater service in Lee County by Gistro, Inc.

Dear Ms. Davis:

Pursuant to Section 120.573, Florida Statutes, state agencies have been charged with the responsibility of promoting mediation of administrative disputes consistent with the provisions contained therein. Mediation is an informal dispute resolution process in which a neutral third party, the mediator, helps the disputing parties reach an agreement upon the disputed matter. The mediator has no power to impose a decision on the parties. Mediation is a desirable alternative to an administrative hearing in that it can be less expensive, less time-consuming, and allows the parties themselves to negotiate settlement of disputed issues.

We will soon contact you to discuss whether this case can be handled through mediation. We encourage you to raise any questions or concerns you may have concerning mediation at that time.

If the affected persons agree to proceed to mediation, Commission staff will draft and submit for your approval an agreement to mediate. For your information, a sample Agreement to Engage in Mediation is enclosed with this letter. The agreement will include provisions for mediator selection, the allocation of any costs and fees associated with the mediation, and the mediating parties' understanding regarding the confidentiality of discussions and documents introduced during mediation, as well as the participation by Commission staff in the mediation process. Pursuant to Section 120.573, Florida Statutes, the mediation will conclude within 60 days of the agreement unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties.

In order for the mediation to be successful, all parties must be committed to engaging in good faith negotiations in order to reach a binding agreement on how to resolve this matter. Therefore, it is important for all parties to be present at the mediation who are able to agree to a binding solution.

However, non-participation may limit standing as provided in Rule 28-106.111, FAC. Each party retains the right to a formal hearing before the Florida Public Service Commission (Commission) should the issues fail to be resolved through the mediation process. Each party agrees that all mediation communications of the parties or the mediator prepared for the purpose of mediation shall be considered confidential offers of settlement and are not admissible in subsequent administrative, legislative, or judicial proceedings, unless: agreed to in writing by all parties; the communication has already been made public; or, the communication is required to be made public by statute or judicial order.

Each party understands that any agreement reached through the mediation process is subject to final review by the Commission. The Commission's final review of the mediated agreement shall be limited to whether the agreement is lawful and in the public interest.
