Dear Paula,

In accordance with our telecom discussion last Friday, I wish to official request cancellation of my certificate effective immediately. Suncoast Vending Services is no longer in business. Per your direction, I have included a $103.00 check for assessment fees for the calendar years of 2002 & 2003.

Thank You,

Public Service Commission

February 12, 2003

Mr. Carl P. McCormick
Suncoast Vending Services (TG729)
7802 Hidden Island Lane
Tampa, FL 33617-4900

Dear Mr. McCormick:

On January 7, 2003, the Commission received your 2002 Regulatory Assessment Fee return form with the note "Business closed." The minimum payment for the 2002 Regulatory Assessment Fee was not received. On January 8, 2003, I wrote you a letter explaining that if payment of the 2002 Regulatory Assessment Fee was received by January 30, 2003, a docket would be established to grant you a voluntary cancellation with an effective date of December 31, 2002. On January 10, 2003, I had a voice mail message from you at 3:36 p.m. and I returned your call the same day at 3:57 p.m. As of this date, no further response has been received.

Normally, the effective date of a cancellation is the date that the Commission received a company's request for cancellation. However, if a company pays the Regulatory Assessment Fee timely, but in a different year, and requests cancellation, the effective date is normally the last working day of the prior year.

In this case, the Commission received your request January 7, 2003, and with what appeared to be a request for cancellation. Had the Commission also received payment of the 2002 Regulatory Assessment Fee by the due date of January 30, 2003, the effective date of the cancellation would have been December 31, 2002. Since payment was not received timely, the effective date of the cancellation will now be January 7, 2003, which means the company now owes the 2003 Regulatory Assessment Fee, even if the company is no longer in business or, in fact, never went into business.

Therefore, based on the above information, I cannot recommend a voluntary cancellation of your certificate unless the past due balance is paid and you either go ahead and pay the 2003 Regulatory Assessment Fee or provide the date the 2003 Regulatory Assessment Fee will be paid. Please respond in writing by March 1, 2003, and let me know how you wish to proceed.
