SUPRA'S MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE DIRECT TESTIMONY ONE DAY LATE

SUPRA TELECOMMUNICATIONS & INFORMATION SYSTEMS, INC. ("Supra"), by and through its undersigned counsel, hereby moves the Commission for Leave to file the direct testimony in this proceeding one day late, and as grounds therefore states:

1 . Federal Express (Fedex) failed to deliver the necessary documentation and exhibits from Miami, which were required to file Mr. Nilson's complete testimony and exhibits. Using Fedex's tracking program, it indicated a 10:30 am delivery – by 3:30pm the package had still not been delivered. We proceeded to process the information at hand to file a partial testimony for Mr. Nilson. Even so, we were unable to timely make the filing with the Clerk's Office. (See Exhibit A - Copy of Fedex Tracking Report attached hereto)

2. Supra arrived at the Clerk's Office at approximately 4:59 pm. One of the Clerk's employee's was locking up and stated that according to her time it was 5:02 pm. She advised that the filing be placed in the drop box.

3. Attached hereto is a copy of Supra's redacted direct testimony of Mr. David Nilson.
Supra shall deposit it in the Commission drop box by the Easely Building.

4. Supra has timely served copies of its direct testimony to BellSouth (via Federal

DOCUMENT NUMBER 030349-TP
15756 JUN 30 6
PROCESSING UNIT CLERK

Express); and Supra believes that BellSouth would not be unfairly prejudiced should Supra be granted leave to file its direct testimony one day late.

WHEREFORE, Supra respectfully requests that this Honorable Commission grant it leave to file its direct testimony one day late, and for such other relief as is deemed equitable and just.
