AT&T'S GENERAL OBJECTIONS TO BELLSOUTH'S
SECOND SET OF INTERROGATORIES (Nos. 14-27)

AT&T Communications of the Southern States, LLC and TCG South
Florida (hereinafter "AT&T"), pursuant to the Order Establishing Procedure, Order No. PSC-03-1054-PCO-TP, issued September 22, 2003 by the Florida
Public Service Commission ("Commission") (hereinafter "Procedural Order"), Rule 28-106.206 of the Florida Administrative Code, and Rules 1.280 and 1.340 of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, object generally to BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc.'s (hereinafter "BellSouth") Second Set of Interrogatories to AT&T Communications of the Southern States, LLC, served on October 30, 2003, as described below.

OVERVIEW

1. AT&T files these objections for purposes of complying with the seven (7) day requirement set forth in the Procedural Order. These objections are preliminary in nature. Should additional grounds for objection be discovered as AT&T prepares its responses to any discovery, or at any time prior to hearing, AT&T reserves the right to supplement, revise, and/or modify these objections.

2. At the time of the filing of these Objections, the issues to be addressed in this proceeding have not yet been identified pursuant to the Procedural Order. Accordingly, should additional grounds for objections develop as the Commission identifies the issues to be addressed in this proceeding, AT&T reserves the right to supplement, revise, and/or modify these objections.

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

AT&T makes the following general objections to the Interrogatories which will be incorporated by reference into AT&T's specific responses when AT&T responds to the Interrogatories.

1. Definitions

A. AT&T objects to the lengthy "Definitions" section of BellSouth's Second Set of Interrogatories to AT&T to the extent that such terms are overly broad, unduly burdensome, irrelevant, oppressive and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence pursuant to the Procedural Order, Rule 28-106.206 of the Florida Administrative Code, and Rules 1.280 and 1.340 of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure. Furthermore, AT&T objects to the "Definitions" section to the extent that it utilizes terms that are subject to multiple interpretations, but are not properly defined or explained for purposes of these Interrogatories.

B. AT&T objects to the "Definitions" section of BellSouth's Second Set of Interrogatories to AT&T to the extent that the definitions operate to include the discovery of information protected by attorney/client privilege, the work product doctrine, the accountant/client privilege, or any other applicable privilege.

C. AT&T objects to the "Definitions" section of BellSouth's Second Set of Interrogatories to AT&T to the extent that the definitions operate to include the discovery of information and/or materials containing the mental impressions, conclusions, opinions or legal theories of any attorney or other representative of AT&T concerning the subject of the proceeding, and prepared and developed in anticipation of litigation pursuant to Rule 1.280(b)(3) of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure without the requisite showing from BellSouth that it has substantial need of the requested information and materials in the preparation of the case and is unable without undue hardship to obtain the substantial equivalent of the materials by other means.

D. AT&T objects to the "Definitions" section of BellSouth's Second Set of Interrogatories to AT&T to the extent that the definitions operate to impose discovery obligations on AT&T inconsistent with, or beyond the scope of, what is permitted under the Procedural Order and the applicable Florida Rules of Civil Procedure.

E. AT&T objects to the "Definitions" section of BellSouth's Second Set of Interrogatories to AT&T to the extent that the definitions operate to seek discovery of matters other than those subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission pursuant to the FCC's Triennial Review Order, Florida Administrative Code and Florida Statutes.

F. AT&T objects to the "Definitions" section of BellSouth's Second Set of Interrogatories to AT&T to the extent that the definitions operate to seek disclosure of information that is proprietary confidential information without the issuance of an appropriate Protective Order or Confidential Classification as outlined by the Procedural Order, §364.183 of the Florida Statutes, §90.506 of the Florida Statutes and Rule 25-22.006.

G. AT&T objects to the definitions of "you" and "your," "AT&T," and "person" to the extent that the definitions include natural persons or entities which are not parties to this proceeding, not subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, and not subject to the applicable discovery rules. Subject to the foregoing, and without waiving any objection, general or specific, unless otherwise ordered, responses will be provided on behalf of AT&T Communications of the Southern States, LLC and TCG South Florida which are certificated carriers authorized to provide regulated communications services in Florida and which are parties to this proceeding. Unless otherwise ordered, responses will be limited to intrastate operations in Florida.

2. Instructions

A. AT&T objects to the "General Instructions" section of BellSouth's Second Set of Interrogatories to AT&T to the extent that the "instructions" operate to impose discovery obligations on AT&T inconsistent with, or beyond the scope of, what is permitted under the Procedural Order and the applicable Florida Rules of Civil Procedure. Subject to the foregoing, and without waiving any objection, responses will be provided in accordance with the Procedural Order and the applicable Florida Rules of Civil Procedure.

B. AT&T objects to the "General Instructions" section of BellSouth's Second Set of Interrogatories to AT&T to the extent that the "instructions" operate to seek disclosure of the mental impressions, conclusions, opinions, or legal theories of any attorney or other representative of AT&T concerning the subject of litigation without the requisite showing under Rule 1.280(b)(3) of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure.

C. AT&T objects the "General Instructions" section of BellSouth's Second Set of Interrogatories to AT&T to the extent that the "instructions" operate to seek disclosure of "all" information in AT&T's "possession, custody or control" and to the extent that said "instruction" requires AT&T to provide information or materials beyond its present knowledge, recollection or possession. With respect thereto, AT&T has employees located in many different locations in Florida and other states. In the course of conducting business on a nationwide basis, AT&T creates numerous documents that are not subject to either Commission or FCC record retention requirements. These documents are kept in numerous locations and frequently are moved from location to location as employees change jobs or as business objectives change. Therefore, it is impossible for AT&T to affirm that every responsive document in existence has been provided in response to all Interrogatories. Instead, where provided, AT&T's responses will provide all information obtained by AT&T after a reasonable and diligent search conducted in connection with those Interrogatories. Such search will include only a review of those files that are reasonably expected to contain the requested information. To the extent that the "instructions" require more, AT&T objects on the grounds that compliance would be unduly burdensome, expensive, oppressive, or excessively time consuming to provide such responsive information.

3. General Objections to Interrogatories

A. AT&T objects to BellSouth's Second Set of Interrogatories to AT&T to the extent that the interrogatories are overly broad, unduly burdensome, irrelevant, oppressive and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence pursuant to the Procedural Order, Rule 28-106.206 of the Florida Administrative Code, and Rules 1.280 and 1.340 of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure.

B. AT&T objects to BellSouth's Second Set of Interrogatories to AT&T to the extent that the interrogatories purport to seek discovery of information protected by attorney/client privilege, the work product doctrine, the accountant/client privilege, or any other applicable privilege.

C. AT&T objects to BellSouth's Second Set of Interrogatories to AT&T to the extent that the interrogatories purport to seek discovery of information and/or materials containing the mental impressions, conclusions, opinions or legal theories of any attorney or other representative of AT&T concerning the subject of the proceeding and prepared and developed in anticipation of litigation pursuant to Rule 1.280(b)(3) of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure without the requisite showing from BellSouth that it has substantial need of the requested information and materials in the preparation of the case and is unable without undue hardship to obtain the substantial equivalent of the materials by other means.

D. AT&T objects to BellSouth's Second Set of Interrogatories to AT&T to the extent that the interrogatories purport to impose discovery obligations on AT&T inconsistent with, or beyond the scope of, what is permitted under the Procedural Order and the applicable Florida Rules of Civil Procedure.

E. AT&T objects to BellSouth's Second Set of Interrogatories to AT&T to the extent that the interrogatories purport to seek discovery of matters other than those subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission pursuant to the FCC's Triennial Review Order, Florida Administrative Code and Florida Statutes.

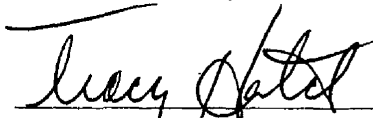

F. AT&T objects to BellSouth's Second Set of Interrogatories to AT&T to the extent that the interrogatories purport to seek disclosure of information that is proprietary confidential information without the issuance of an appropriate Protective Order or Confidential Classification as outlined by the Procedural Order, §364.183 of the Florida Statutes, §90-506 of the Florida Statutes, and Rule 25-22.006.

G. AT&T objects to all interrogatories which require the disclosure of information which already is in the public domain or otherwise on record with the Commission or the Federal Communications Commission ("FCC").

H. AT&T objects to BellSouth's Second Set of Interrogatories to AT&T to the extent that the interrogatories seek information and discovery of facts known and opinions held by experts acquired and/or developed in anticipation of litigation or for hearing and outside the scope of discoverable information pursuant to Rule 1.280(4) of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure.

I. Pursuant to the Procedural Order, the Triennial Review Order, Rule 28-106.206 of the Florida Administrative Code, and Rules 1.280 and 1.340 of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, to the extent that BellSouth's interrogatories request specific financial, business or proprietary information regarding AT&T's economic business model, AT&T objects to providing or producing any such information on the grounds that those requests presume that the market entry analysis is contingent upon AT&T's economic business model instead of the hypothetical business model contemplated by the Triennial Review Order.

Respectfully submitted, this the 6th day of November, 2003.
