2) churn within the first six months after the customer's service is provisioned.

RESPONSE:

BellSouth objects to this Interrogatory on grounds that the information is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence and it is not relevant to the subject matter of this action. BellSouth also objects to this Interrogatory on grounds that it is unduly burdensome, overly broad, and oppressive as written. Subject to these objections, and without waiving these objections, this information is proprietary and is being provided subject to the protective agreement executed by the parties.
