COMMENCEMENT OF CASE. The filing of the bankruptcy cases automatically stays certain collection and other actions against the Debtors and the Debtors' property. If you attempt to collect a debt or take other action in violation of the Bankruptcy Code, you may be penalized.

CREDITORS MAY NOT TAKE CERTAIN ACTIONS. A creditor is anyone to whom a debtor owes money or property. Under the Bankruptcy Code, a debtor is granted certain protection against creditors. Common examples of prohibited actions by creditors are contacting a debtor to demand repayment, taking action against a debtor to collect money owed to creditors or to take property of a debtor, and starting or continuing foreclosure actions or repossessions. If unauthorized actions are taken by a creditor against a debtor, the Court may penalize that creditor. A creditor who is considering taking action against a debtor or the property of a debtor should review § 362 of the Bankruptcy Code and may wish to seek legal advice. The staff of the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court are not permitted to give legal advice.

MEETING OF CREDITORS. The Debtors' representative, as specified in Rule 9001(5) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), is required to appear at the meeting of creditors on the date and at the place set forth above for the purpose of being examined under oath. Attendance by creditors at the meeting is welcomed, but not required. At the meeting, the creditors may examine the Debtors and transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting. The meeting may be continued or adjourned from time to time by notice at the meeting, without further written notice to the creditors.

CLAIMS. Schedules of creditors will be filed pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1007, and in accordance with any other applicable orders of the Court. Any creditor holding a scheduled claim which is not listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated as to amount may, but is not required to, file a proof of claim in these cases. Creditors whose claims are not scheduled or whose claims are listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated as to amount and who desire to participate in this case or share in any distribution must file their proof of claim. A creditor who desires to rely on the schedule of creditors has the responsibility for determining that the claim is listed accurately. Separate notice of the deadline(s) to file a proof of claim and proof of claim forms will be provided to the Debtors' known creditors. Proof of claim forms also are available in the clerk's office of any bankruptcy court. Proof of claim forms are also available from the Court's web site at www.deb.uscourts.gov.

Please be aware that the U.S. Courthouse and private buildings where court proceedings are held, require photo identification of all persons accessing the buildings. Please bring photo identification when attending court hearings or proceedings. If you do not have a photo ID, please contact the United States Trustee's office, or the Office of the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court.
