Thanks. I have a call in to Kevin Neal--actually to Diane Lee--right now to attempt to get a verbal approval for making the copies this afternoon and will follow it up with written approval Thursday morning. (Mary Bane is not in.)

Thanks again for your responses.

None at all. I would have thought he would have had them, but he certainly is entitled to a copy.

Ken represented FPL in this docket, so I think it would appropriate to provide him a copy of the confidential portions of the deposition transcripts. I'm a bit surprised he doesn't already have them. Since Larry worked as lead on this case, he may have some additional insight. Larry, can you think of any reason why we shouldn't provide Ken the depositions?

Ken Hoffman has asked for copies of the confidential depositions of Mennes and Schoneck, both FPL witnesses, taken in April in this need determination docket. I'll need to get Dr. Bane's permission to make the copies, but can you confirm first that it is appropriate for us to provide copies of these confidential documents to Ken Hoffman?
