Kay, I talked with Beth on this and showed her the Notice of Withdrawal. She, also, said that we should just let it go on through since the intent is clear. Up here, we remain impressed with your diligence. You have saved our hides repeatedly. Thanks for that. Have a great weekend.

The title of the notice and the docket title as shown in the notice both include "South" which is incorrect. For the sake of having a correct record, wouldn't it proper for them to correct this? I will leave it to you to say.

Kay, the dicta in the body may be inartfully drafted, but the title in the heading and the Docket No. are correct. I believe it is sufficient to support our closing the Docket. You should have received a closing memo by now. Let me know if you are uncomfortable with that.

Subject: notice of withdrawal in Docket 011172

Lee, we received a notice of withdrawal in this docket yesterday. The company name is shown as Global NAPs South, Inc. in the notice. The correct company name (at least as it was shown on the initiating petition) doesn't include "South." Further, the notice indicates ". . . hereby files its Notice of Withdrawal of Complaint and Request for Emergency Declaratory Statement . . ." I can't find that we received a request for emergency declaratory statement.

Could they be asked to file a corrected notice?

Kay
