BELLSOUTH TELECOMMUNICATIONS, INC.'S FIRST
REQUEST FOR ADMISSIONS, SECOND INTERROGATORIES (28-30) AND SECOND REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS (8)
TO NUVOX COMMUNICATIONS, INC.

BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. ("BellSouth"), hereby serves the following discovery to Nuvox Communications, Inc. ("Nuvox").

DEFINITIONS

1. "BellSouth" means BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc., and its subsidiaries, their present and former officers, employees, agents, representatives, directors, and all other persons acting or purporting to act on behalf of BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc.

2. The terms "you" and "your" refer to Nuvox.

3. Nuvox means Nuvox Communications, Inc. its predecessors in interest, parent(s), subsidiaries, affiliates, present and former officers, employees, agents, directors, and all other persons acting or purporting to act on behalf of NUVOX.

4. The term "person" means any natural person, corporation, corporate division, partnership, other unincorporated association, trust, government agency, or entity.

5. The term "document" shall have the broadest possible meaning under applicable law. "Document" means every writing or record of every type and description that is in the possession, custody or control of NUVOX including, but not limited to, correspondence, memoranda, drafts, work papers, summaries, stenographic or handwritten notes, studies, publications, books, pamphlets, reports, surveys, minutes or statistical compilations, computer and other electronic records or tapes or printouts, including, but not limited to, electronic mail files; and copies of such writings or records containing any commentary or notation whatsoever that does not appear in the original. The term "document" further includes, by way of illustration and not limitation, schedules, progress schedules, time logs, drawings, computer disks, charts, projections, time tables, summaries of other documents, minutes, surveys, work sheets, drawings, comparisons, evaluations, laboratory and testing reports, telephone call records, personal diaries, calendars, personal notebooks, personal reading files, transcripts, witness statements and indices.

6. The term "communication" means any oral, graphic, demonstrative, telephonic, verbal, electronic, written or other conveyance of information, including, but not limited to, conversations, telecommunications and documents.

7. The term "referring or relating to" means consisting of, containing, mentioning, suggesting, reflecting, concerning, regarding, summarizing, analyzing, discussing, involving, dealing with, emanating from, directed at, pertaining to in any way, or in any way logically or factually connected or associated with the matter discussed.

8. "And" and "or" as used herein shall be construed both conjunctively and disjunctively and each shall include the other whenever such construction will serve to bring within the scope of these discovery requests any information that would otherwise not be brought within their scope.

9. The singular as used herein shall include the plural, and vice versa, and the masculine gender shall include the feminine and the neuter.

10. "Identify" or "identifying" or "identification" when used in reference to a natural person means to state:

- a) the full legal name of the person;
- b) the name, title and employer of the person at the time in question;
- c) the present or last known employer of such person;
- d) the present or last known home and business addresses of the person; and
- e) the present home address.

11. "Identify" or "identifying" or "identification" when used in reference to a person other than a natural person means to state:

- a) the full name of the person and any names under which it conducts business;
- b) the present or last known address of the person; and
- c) the present or last known telephone number of the person.

12. "Identify" or "identifying" or "identification" when used in reference to a document means to provide with respect to each document requested to be identified by these discovery requests a description of the document that is sufficient for purposes of a request to produce or a subpoena duces tecum, including the following:

- a) the type of document (e.g., letter, memorandum, etc.);
- b) the date of the document;
- c) the title or label of the document;
- d) the Bates number or other identifier used to number the document for use in litigation;
- e) the identity of the originator;
- f) the identity of each person to whom it was sent;
- g) the identity of each person to whom a copy or copies were sent;
- h) a summary of the contents of the document;

- i) the name and last known address of each person who presently has possession, custody or control of the document; and
- j) if any such document was, but is no longer, in your possession, custody or control or is no longer in existence, state whether it: (1) is missing or lost; (2) has been destroyed; or (3) has been transferred voluntarily or involuntarily, and, if so, state the circumstances surrounding the authorization for each such disposition and the date of such disposition.

13. "Identify," "identifying" or "identity" when used in reference to a communication means to state the date of the communication, whether the communication was written or oral, the identity of all parties and witnesses to the communication, the substance of what was said and/or transpired and, if written, the identity of the document(s) containing or referring to the communication.

14. "Business case" refers to any undertaking that analyzes or evaluates, among other things, the business value to be realized, the tangible and intangible benefits, the effect on business processes and people's jobs, the financials, the technology to be applied, and the risks, potential problems and rewards of a particular course of action. It is the process that would be undertaken prior to going into a particular business, or before undertaking a particular course of action in order to determine whether the actions taken would provide a positive business benefit, when balanced against the potential problems that might be incurred.

15. "ILEC" refers to Incumbent Local Exchange Carrier.

16. "Southeastern states" include the following states: Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Tennessee.

17. “IRU” refers to an indefeasible right of use, or a type of arrangement that conveys a right that cannot be arbitrarily changed or altered.

18. “Dark fiber” refers to optical transmission facilities without attached electronics, through which no light is transmitted and no signal is carried.

19. “Dark fiber transport” refers to optical transmission facilities without activated electronics, through which no light is transmitted and no signal is carried.

20. “Optronics” refers to equipment, materials, and devices that are attached to dark fiber for the purpose of lighting the fiber to carry a signal to serve customers.

21. “Loop” refers to a transmission facility between a distribution frame (or its equivalent) and the loop demarcation point at an end-user customer premises. This definition is intended to include facilities between a switch, wire center, collocation, or point of interconnection and a customer’s premises and is inclusive of both transmission facilities between an incumbent LEC central office and transmission facilities between non-ILEC wire centers and switches.

22. “DSO” refers to Digital Signal, level zero.

23. “DS1” refers to Digital Signal, level 1.

24. “MSA” refers to Metropolitan Statistical Area.

25. A “qualifying service” is a service as defined in 47 C.F.R. §51.5, as that rule is currently set forth in connection with the FCC’s Triennial Review Order (TRO).

26. “High capacity” refers to transmission and loop facilities with a total digital signal speed of DS1 or higher.

27. “CLLI code” refers to the Common Language Location Identifier that identifies a specific physical location or specific piece of equipment at a physical location.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. If you contend that any response to any Interrogatory may be withheld under the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine or any other privilege or basis, please state the following with respect to each such response in order to explain the basis for the claim of privilege and to permit adjudication of the propriety of that claim:

- a) the privilege asserted and its basis;
- b) the nature of the information withheld; and
- c) the subject matter of the document, except to the extent that you claim it is privileged.

2. These discovery requests are to be answered with reference to all information in your possession, custody or control or reasonably available to you. These discovery requests are intended to include requests for information, which is physically within your possession, custody or control as well as in the possession, custody or control of your agents, attorneys, or other third parties from which such documents may be obtained.

3. If any Interrogatory cannot be answered in full, answer to the extent possible and specify the reasons for your inability to answer fully.

4. These interrogatories are continuing in nature and require supplemental responses should information unknown to you at the time you serve your responses to these interrogatories subsequently become known.

5. For each Interrogatory, provide the name of the company witness(es) or employee(s) responsible for compiling and providing the information contained in each answer.

6. To the extent NUVOX has previously provided a response to any Interrogatory, which prior response is responsive to any of the following Interrogatories, in Florida or any other state in proceedings in which BellSouth and NUVOX are parties, NUVOX need not respond to such Interrogatory again, but rather may respond to such Interrogatory by identifying the prior response to such Interrogatory by state, proceeding, docket number, date of response, and the number of such response. If such prior response does not respond to the Interrogatory contained below in its entirety, you should provide all additional information necessary to make your answers to these Interrogatories complete.

ADMISSONS AND INTERROGATORIES

28. Please admit that Nuvox has self-reported in CLONES (Central Location Online Entry System) database from Telecordia or to other third parties that it has deployed high capacity loop facilities to the address listed in the confidential attachment.

29. Please admit that Nuvox has deployed high capacity loop facilities to the addresses listed in the confidential attachment.

30. If Nuvox has denied any of the previous Requests for Admissions, state all facts and identify all documents that support such denial.

REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION

8. Produce any documents identified above.

Respectfully submitted this 21st day of January 2004.
