Case Background

On December 7, 2001, the Commission issued Order No. PSC-01-2371-FOF-EI, a final order resolving all substantive issues in Docket No. 010283-EI. By its order, the Commission approved staff's recommendation on each substantive issue without modification. Due to an oversight, however, staff's recommendation did not include an issue concerning closure of the docket. Accordingly, the Commission's final order did not indicate how or when the docket should be closed. No person sought reconsideration of, or appealed, the Commission's final order. This recommendation simply addresses closure of the docket.

The Commission has jurisdiction pursuant to Chapter 366, Florida Statutes.
