Re: Advice Letter No. 4
Motion Telecom, Inc. ("Motion")

In re: Ownership Change of Motion's Parent Company

Dear Commission:

Pursuant to the applicable Statutes of this State and the Commission's Rules and Regulations currently in effect and/or subsequently enacted, Motion Telecom, Inc., a Colorado corporation ("Motion"), Advantage Advisory Service, Inc., d/b/a Advantage Wireless, a California corporation in good standing ("Advantage") and Wireless Channels, Inc., a Delaware corporation in good standing ("Wireless") hereby respectfully submit notice to this Commission of the transfer of control of Motion in a transaction where the Class A Common shareholders of its affiliate/parent, Advantage, sold their shares (constituting 75.72% of the outstanding shares of Advantage) to Wireless. The remaining 24.28% of Advantage is now owned by Advantage Advisory Service, Inc. Employee Stock Ownership Plan and Trust (the "ESOP") until on or about January 1, 2005 when the ESOP will be terminated and its shares shall be returned to Advantage.

Motion is a corporation organized under the laws of the state of Colorado, with its principal offices located at 7101 South Fulton Street, Suite 200, Centennial, Colorado 80112. Motion was granted its approval to resell interexchange toll telecommunications services to residential and small business customers in Florida by the Commission on or about July 8, 2003. Motion is authorized to do business in 48 states and has approximately 405 long distance customers in the state of Florida. Motion is a corporation organized under the laws of the state of Colorado, with its principal offices located at 7101 South Fulton, Street, Suite 200, Centennial, Colorado 80112 and is authorized to do business in the State of Florida. Advantage is a corporation organized under the laws of the state of California, with its principal offices located at 7101 South Fulton Street, Suite 200, Centennial, Colorado 80112 and is an operating company in the wireless distribution business, as well as a holding company, and holds no certificates of authority. Wireless is a corporation organized under the laws of the state of Delaware, with its principal offices located at 111775 Redwood Ave., Boulder, CO 80304, and is a holding company which holds no certificates of authority. A copy of Wireless' Certificate of Incorporation is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

This advice letter is not an application for transfer of operating authority and does not involve any transfer of customers. Instead, the letter is intended to submit notice of the change in ultimate control of Motion by virtue of a stock transaction at the parent level. Advantage owns 100% of the outstanding stock of Motion. Until consummation of the Control Proposal, Victor and Anamaria Mitchell Family Partnership, a California limited partnership ("Mitchell") was the controlling shareholder of Advantage with approximately 67% of the shares of Advantage. The remaining shareholders consisted of approximately 4.3% held by two other officers of Advantage (Sue Spurr (3.7%) and Mark Gritz (.6%)), and the remaining shares (approximately 28.7%) have been held by the ESOP.

Wireless entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement with the shareholders of Advantage on March 10, 2004. In connection with this transaction, Ben Joseph, the President of Wireless, became Chairman of the Board of Directors and Chief Executive Officer of both Advantage and Motion, and Victor Mitchell resigned. (See attached Exhibit B, Resume of Ben Joseph). The shareholders of Wireless, and their percentage ownership of the outstanding shares of Wireless are set forth in Exhibit C hereto. The above-described change of control (i) will have no impact on the ratepayers, and the tariff will not be revised; and (ii) will not adversely impact competition; neither Wireless, the ESOP nor their respective affiliates is a public utility and have no controlling interest in any other public utility offering the Services. Simplified charts showing the pre-close and post-close corporate structures are attached hereto as Exhibits D and E, respectively.

Motion, Advantage and Wireless respectfully request that the Commission acknowledge this notice and indirect transfer of control of Motion Telecom, Inc. nunc pro tunc to March 10, 2004 on an expedited basis. In the event you have questions or discussion items, please contact me at (303) 784-5329, bvonderheid@awipcs.com or Joelyn Mann, Corporate Regulatory & Compliance Manager for Motion at 303-643-6627, jmann@awipcs.com.
