Re: Indiantown Gas Company's Waiver of Statutory Time for Proposed Agency Action Regarding Petition for Rate
Increase, PSC Docket No. 030954-GU

Dear Ms. Bayo:

By this letter, Indiantown Gas Company (the "Company") waives its right pursuant to Section 366.06(4), Florida Statutes (2003), to have the Commission enter its vote on its petition for a rate increase using the Commission's proposed agency action procedure within five months following the filing of the Company's petition. Specifically, following conversations with the Commission Staff, the Company waives its rights to the extent of agreeing to have the Commission vote on the Company's request at the Commission's agenda conference on May 18, 2004 and correspondingly issue its Proposed Agency Action order in the normal course of business thereafter. Naturally, the Company desires that the PAA order be issued as soon as is reasonably practicable following the Commission's vote.

I will sincerely appreciate your confirming receipt of this letter by stamping the attached filing copy thereof and returning same to my attention.

As always, my thanks to you and to your professional Staff for their kind and courteous assistance. If you have any questions, please give me a call at (850)681-0311.

Cordially yours;

Robert Scheffel Wright
