CSX TRANSPORTATION'S UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME
TO RESPOND TO TECO'S MOTION TO HOLD PROCEEDING
IN ABEYANCE AND OFFER OF SETTLEMENT

CSX Transportation ("CSXT"), by and through undersigned counsel, pursuant to Rule 28-106.204(1), Florida Administrative Code, hereby files this unopposed motion for a two-day extension of time to respond to Tampa Electric Company's motion to hold proceeding in abeyance filed in this proceeding on August 31, 2004. The reason for the requested extension is to permit CSXT to prepare its response in an orderly manner, given the logistical difficulties experienced in preparing and reviewing its response occasioned by the passing of Hurricane Frances over significant parts of the Jacksonville and Tallahassee areas over the past few days.

The undersigned has conferred with counsel for Tampa Electric, for the Florida Industrial Power Users Group, and for the Residential Customers, and is authorized to represent that none of these parties objects to the requested extension. The undersigned attempted to reach counsel for the Commission Staff
