Ray,

Mr. Ramdial called me because he received the 2004 RAF return for TF973. He said he requested cancellation of his payphone certificate last year when he paid the 2003 RAF. I pulled up the documents in RAF System (see attached) and there is a letter from him. I was never provided a copy of this so a docket has not been established.

Should I open a docket to grant him a cancellation effective 12/31/2003? If yes, will this have to have a special recommendation (these are normally handled by memo with an administrative order issued) to explain the extenuating circumstances?

I told Mr. Ramdial I would call him back after discussing with you. Thanks.
