E.B. Docket No. 04-381

To: Office of the Secretary

Attn.: The Honorable Richard L. Sippel
Chief Administrative Law Judge

GULF POWER'S PROPOSED ADDITIONAL AGENDA ITEMS FOR JANUARY 31, 2005 PREHEARING CONFERENCE

Gulf Power Company ("Gulf Power"), in accordance with the January 11, 2005 Order, submits the following proposed additional agenda items for the January 31, 2005 Prehearing
Conference:¹

CMP _____
COM _____
CTR _____
ECR _____
GCL _____
OPC _____
MMS _____
RCA _____
SCR _____
SEC 1 _____
OTH _____

1. Whether Complainants are due to produce documents from Florida Cable Telecommunications Association ("FCTA") members (other than the named Complainants), if individual FCTA members seek the benefit of the May 13, 2003 FCC Order.²

¹ The parties were not able to agree upon a proposed agenda. Complainants e-mailed a proposed draft joint agenda to undersigned counsel. But this draft -- which contained eleven pages of argument as to why Gulf Power should lose the case right now -- was not what Gulf Power understood the January 11, 2005 Order to intend ("The parties are to file a suggested agenda . . .").

² The documents produced by Complainants in the January 12, 2005 exchange were from Cox, Comcast, Mediacom, and Bright House only.

2. Whether, in light of the estimated time for Gulf Power's consultant to complete its work (as set forth in the January 11, 2005 letter report), the interests of justice would be best served by a temporary stay or revision to existing procedural deadlines.³
3. Whether Gulf Power is expected to respond to the purportedly dispositive arguments made by Complainants in each of their submissions, including those which the Presiding Judge prospectively characterizes as "reports" or "suggested agendas."

Respectfully submitted,
