Subject: FW: Confidential documents from 1993

Hey Kay,

The company - Five Flags Pipeline, does not exist. The company was sold several times and is now in the hands of Gulf South Pipeline. My recommendation would be to shred the documents. First, the company doesn't exist and so the contracts and rates addressed in the docket are no longer valid. Second, the documents are so old as to have no value. Third, I suspect if we sent the documents to Gulf South, the current owner, they would have no idea what they were and would probably cause them time and energy trying to figure out what to do with them. If you have any questions, please let me know. Thanks, Cheryl

Cheryl, the 10 confidential documents listed in Karla's e-mail below all had ECR as responsible division. We've corrected all to CMP as responsible division. The documents are still on file in the confidential room. They were all filed by atty Peter Dunbar in 1993. What would be most appropriate to do at this point:

- 1. Return them to Mr. Dunbar (not sure if he still represents the company)
- 2. Return them to the company (not sure if the company exists)
- 3. Have them shredded.

Can you advise?

Thanks.
Kay
