GULF POWER COMPANY'S MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO RESPOND TO COMPLAINANTS' MOTION TO COMPEL

Gulf Power Company ("Gulf Power"), pursuant to 47 C.F.R. § 1.205, respectfully requests a 14-day extension of time to respond to complainants' motion to compel. In support of this motion, Gulf Power says the following:

1. On Monday, July 11, 2005, complainants served a 73-page motion to compel upon Gulf Power. The motion to compel takes issue with 40 out of 48 interrogatory responses, and 26 out of 35 responses to requests for production.
2. The discovery responses at issue were served upon complainants on April 18, 2005. Complainants sought and obtained two extensions of time to file their motion to compel in order to complete a May 26-27, 2005 document review prior to filing their motion.

3. Few (if any) of the issues raised by complainants in their motion to compel relate to the documents Gulf Power did or did not make available for inspection and copying during the May 26-27, 2005 document review. Instead, each issue raised by complainants takes aim at the substance of the written response itself.

4. The FCC's procedural rules allow 7-days to respond to a motion to compel interrogatory responses. 47 C.F.R. § 1.323(c).¹

5. Though Gulf Power does not anticipate generating a tome of like kind, Gulf Power does wish to respond to complainants' 73-page, 66-item motion. But Gulf Power cannot adequately or concisely respond by next Monday, July 18, 2005.

6. Gulf Power submits that a 14-day extension of the deadline is appropriate under the circumstances, and will not prejudice any party. With a 14-day extension, the new deadline would be Monday, August 1, 2005.

7. Complainants do not object to the requested 14-day extension.

Respectfully submitted,

¹ There is no specific time period proscribed for a response to a motion to compel responses to requests for production. 47 C.F.R. § 1325(a)(2). For the sake of simplicity, Gulf Power requests that the deadline for responding to the entire motion be set on Monday, August 1, 2005.
