RE: Recommendations for certain Requests for Confidential Classification in Docket No. 041269-TP.

BellSouth has a pending Request for Confidential Classification, as summarized below:

Requesting Party	Document Description	Compliance with Rule¹	Specific Information and Justification
BellSouth	Document Nos. 08474-05 (filed with NOI) and 09245-05 (filed with RCC), Responses to Covad's 1 st set of Interrogatories, Item No. 1, and Responses to Covad's 1 st Request for Production of Documents, Item No. 1.	YES, Rule 25-22.006, FAC	The Responses to Covad's 1 st set of Interrogatories, Item No. 1, and Responses to Covad's 1 st Request for Production of Documents, Item No. 1 contain information BellSouth considers proprietary. This information relates to the line counts of HDSL UNE loops detailed by wire center. BellSouth argues that CLECs may regard this information as confidential business information which could harm their competitive interests if disclosed.

I believe the Request for Confidential Classification should be granted.
