I agree. Based on the actions of the parties, the date no longer seems "critical," but we don't have any sort of confirmation on this point. Thus, I believe the "critical date" of 7/21 should stay.

It may look odd to have a "critical date" that has passed, but I think that's fine. Unless Laura, Sally, or Patty disagree, I think it should stay as it is. In my view, the "actionable date" of 7/21 was in play when we prepared (filed) the rec, and the deferral doesn't change the language in the IA that we referenced to peg the 60-th day (which would have been 7/21) as a "critical" date.

Mike, the rec we'll be using indicates critical date is 7/21. We will use that date for the 8/3 agenda page, though I realize it is already past 7/21, right?

Please let me know if questions or concerns!
