Yes, we can do that. Give me a list of dockets and I will take care of it next week.

Thanks.

Kay, I have an "odd" question.

Three of the certificates "owned" by MCI were cancelled last year at their request, but the companies are in negotiation for a new agreement where all certificates will be served under one agreement.

I'm still reviewing amendments to existing agreements and wonder if we can insert the company codes into the CMS utility listing.

An example would be 050458-TP.
