Dear Blanca Bayo, Director:

There is an enclosed copy of a letter that was sent to the Florida Public Service Commission on the 29th of March in 2005. I inform the Commission that due to one of the many hurricanes we had in 2004, I lost the only phone I had in operation. I requested my business be dissolved.

There should not be a reason why I am still getting notices to pay fees. If there is, please explain.

Again, I am requesting that my certificate be cancelled. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Maria Elena Neeley

To Whom It May Concern

The one payphone I had in operation was damaged during the last hurricane in the Fall of 2004. With the many storms we had to cope with , a full time job, being in the hospital at the end of August 2004 and December 2004, the tests I had to under go in January of 2005 , I have not had time to contact the state that I am no longer in business. I did call and was told I had to write a letter.
At this time I am requesting my business be dissolved.

Sincerely,

Maria Elena Z. Neeley
