Docket No. 060366-TP
Filed: August 4, 2006

Preliminary List of Issues

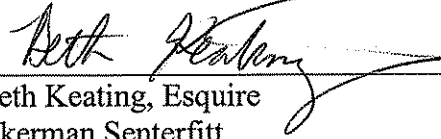

In accordance with Commission staff's request in its July 27, 2006, Memorandum to the Parties to this case, Supra Telecommunications and Information Systems, Inc. hereby respectfully submits the following list of issues, which it believes are appropriate and necessary for resolution in this proceeding:

1. Is BellSouth required to offer for resale the promotions at issue in this Docket in accordance with 47 U.S.C. § 251 (c)(4), Sections 364.161(2) and 364.162, Florida Statutes, and 47 C.F.R. § 51.613(b)?
2. Should BellSouth be required to discount a service that is provided for resale by an additional amount equivalent to the value of any promotion offered in conjunction with that service when it is provided on a retail basis?

Supra believes that these issues are legal questions that can be resolved through the briefing process. To the extent that there may be factual components (which Supra does not concede), Supra believes the facts are documented and susceptible to verification by alternative means that would negate the need for a full Section 120.57(1), F.S., hearing. Supra declines at this time to address the specific arguments raised by BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. in its filing this same day, but respectfully reserves its right to address those arguments at the appropriate time.

Respectfully submitted this 4th day of August, 2006.
