You are correct about TI528. Concerning TJ841, yes, the letter should be documented in both dockets (the compliance and the new dockets), and it will be included in the CO. The company just complied with the Order by paying the past due amounts and the fine (they wanted to leave in good standing, which is why they paid the fine and want a voluntary cancellation).

Paula, we're opening dockets to remove these registrations...

TI528 is not part of any compliance docket, so it stands on its own.

TJ841 is part of 060470. Do we include a copy of the request to cancel in that docket? Is this company going to be included in the consummating order?
