TAMPA ELECTRIC COMPANY'S MOTION FOR TEMPORARY PROTECTIVE ORDER

Tampa Electric Company ("Tampa Electric" or "the company"), pursuant to Section 366.093, Florida Statutes, and Rule 25-22.006(6)(c), Florida Administrative Code, hereby moves the Florida Public Service Commission for entry of a temporary protective order, and as grounds therefor, says:

1. On August 17, 2006 the Office of Public Counsel ("OPC") requested copies of the all documents originated since January 1, 2005 that discuss, in general, the overall benefits or disadvantages of hedging from either the company's perspective or the customer's perspective. The information requested by OPC is confidential, proprietary business information.

2. Tampa Electric has copied and will provide the above-referenced confidential documents to OPC, but is in need of a temporary protective order exempting the information from Section 119.07(1), Florida Statutes.

3. The information in question discloses hedging strategies and results. Public disclosure of such information would impair the efforts of Tampa Electric to contract for goods and services on favorable terms. Such information relates to competitive interests, the disclosure of which would impair the competitive business of Tampa Electric. The Commission has determined on numerous occasions that risk management practices and hedging strategies constitute proprietary confidential business information entitled to protection under Section 366.093, Florida Statutes.

4. Tampa Electric treats the above-described information as confidential proprietary business information and has not disclosed it publicly.

WHEREFORE, Tampa Electric Company moves the Commission for entry of a temporary protective order exempting the above-described confidential information from Section 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, while in the possession of OPC.

DATED this 21st day of September, 2006.

Respectfully submitted,

LEE L. WILLIS
