This document, 02066-05, can be returned to the company. Can you ask John Butler how long they will retain this document once they get it back? Thanks.

Pete,

Can we return these documents to FPL or should they request extensions?

Lisa

Subject: Expiration of confidential classification

Lisa, as you can see from the attachments, the Commission granted confidential classification on April 19, 2005 for 18 months to the confidential portions of Schedule A12 concerning 2004 power purchases. To date, the Commission has not returned the confidential version of Schedule A12, so FPL will need to file an extension request by October 19 unless it is returned before then. Would you please check with the appropriate Staff personnel to see whether there's a continuing need for the confidential information on Schedule A12 and, if not, whether you can commit to return it before October 19? Thanks, John Butler
