In Re: Subpoena Duces Tecum without Deposition to
AT&T Communications of the Southern States, LLC

Dear Ms. Bayo:

On September 22, 2006 the Florida Public Service Commission issued a subpoena to AT&T requesting documents and other information in connection with the Commission's compliance investigation of TCG Public Communications, Inc., Docket 060614. In lieu of appearing, AT&T hereby submits the attached response. Exhibit C attached to this response is a document containing confidential proprietary information which should not be disclosed to the public.

Pursuant to Rule 25-22.06(5), AT&T is now filing a Claim for Confidential Classification of Exhibit C because the information contained in the material provided contains business information that is considered confidential and proprietary to AT&T and could cause competitive harm if disclosed. Pursuant to Sections 364.183, Florida Statutes and Rule 25-22-006(5), Florida Administrative Code, such information is classified as proprietary confidential business information. Accordingly, it should be held exempt from the public disclosure requirements of Section 119.07, Florida Statutes.

AT&T has treated and intends to continue to treat the information for which confidential classification is sought as private, and this information has not been generally disclosed. If you
