I am still trying to locate one copy of FPL's original draft Rating Agency Presentation that was filed with the original batch of confidential documents in late July. I need to return it to our clerk's office. Could you check your files once more for me?

Thanks,
Cochran

Cochran,
i was wrong.....
we are still missing Pt 1 of 6 (Copy 10 of 10) paper version of DN 06596-06.
When i receive that part of the confidential document, i can return the entire document back to the company.
thanks,
Marguerite.

I believe I now have the final piece of the documents that were forwarded to our outside financial advisor. I will return it in just a few moments.

Once I have returned this final piece, all materials filed as DN 06596-06 can be returned.

We won't change the status of the document in that case. We'll continue to show it filed under a notice of intent.

As soon as you have all those copies and direct us to do so, we'll return them to FPL.

Thanks.

Also: We haven't received any more confidential documents related to this bond team, right? Nothing has come through CCA.

The motion for protective order was broad enough to cover these documents. Still, I am trying to collect all copies of the documents filed under the NOI so that they can be returned to FPL.

Thanks,
Cochran

Cochran, back on 7/25 FPL filed a notice of intent to request confidential classification of draft materials to be furnished in connection with participation in the bond team, then on 7/26 we received the material itself (DN 06596-06). FPL has not filed a timely request for confidentiality (within 21 days of NOI). However, they did file a Motion for Protective Order on 8/4 concerning confidential materials that might be passed among the bond team. Can we consider that that motion covers the 7/26/06 confidential filing? If not, we normally would declassify the conf. material since no timely request was filed.

Can you advise?

Thanks.

Kay
