ok, this e-mail will be a correction to the response on the 3rd quarterly confidential report (DN 09403-06) stating to return the document. Document No. 13199-01 will be kept in confidential lock-up and will be declassified in 2007 and forwarded to the public docket file.

thanks,
Marguerite.

I would go through the regular declassification process. It looks like FPL asked for an extension of confidential treatment for this document at one time but has not asked for another extension.

Cochran,

on the 3rd quarterly confidential report, confidential document 13199-01 [FPSC (LEG/C.Keating) - direct testimony of Kathy L. Welch w/exhibits KLW-1 -KLW-3.] has been marked to be returned to the sender. If this action is done, the document will be shredded, or if retained and declassified on 4/7/07, the document would be placed in the public docket file.

in the transcript on page 514, the confidential information is the redacted version of a page in confidential document 13199-01.

Retain document & process with the regular declassification process ???

or shred document ???
