Hi Kay,

Yes, please correct the docket title to reflect "NXX" rather than NXX-X. Thanks.

Lee Eng, we got a CASR for this docket today with a note "docket title contained error" and the -X crossed out in the title.

I checked the filing from NuVox, and it uses NXX-X, so that's how we opened the docket.

If their filing was wrong and the title needs correcting before the order goes out, please advise by return e-mail that we need to correct the title and we will do so per your request (rather than the less formal copy of CASR with note).

Thanks.

Kay
