To all:

I relayed Marguerite's comments to the parties. In short, the parties no longer see a need for the issues to be filed in the docket. Further, Supra now states that they e-mailed and faxed the documents to me only. I informed both parties that in the future, if they want to file documents electronically, they must address the documents/letters to Blanca Bayo and e-mail them to records.

Thanks for the quick response,

Jeremy

Kay, we checked the electronic filings and the only filing came in on 6/07 from BellSouth was for Docket 040353. There was a filing from BellSouth on 6/08 in Docket 040301. However, it is a letter notification of service of responses to Supra's 1st request for admissions (Nos. 1-20). We also searched all of the filings for 6/0604-6/08/04 in CMS, but did not find anything. Just to be sure, we got copies of the documents from Jeremy so we could take a look. The documents were addressed to GCL. Apparently, they were never filed with CCA.

Marguerite spoke with Jeremy and informed him that if the documents need to be filed with CCA, they can either be filed by the companies (in that case, the companies will have to be contacted), or GCL can file a memo, with the documents attached, stating that the documents should be included in the docket file.

Thanks!

Hey Hong:

I wanted to bring to your attention that both parties (Supra/BellSouth) to this docket filed issues on June 7th, but the documents are not showing up on CMS or our website. Supra hand-delivered their documents and BellSouth filed theirs electronically.

I received a copy of both documents if you need them.

Sincerely,

Jeremy
