Dear Ms. Bayo:

On March 13, 2007, the Public Service Commission is scheduled to consider a joint petition for approval of a stipulation by Aloha Utilities, Inc. ("Aloha") and Office of Public Counsel. That stipulation relates Aloha's service availability policy. (Docket No. 060122-WU, Joint Petition to Approve Stipulation on Procedure.)

Pasco Health Investors, LLC ("Pasco Health") recently filed a complaint against Aloha for violations of Sections 367.081 and 367.101, Florida Statutes, on the grounds that Aloha's service availability policy, as applied to a proposed nursing home facility, results in charges that are unjust, unreasonable, and that unfairly discriminate against nursing home developers who have designed projects to conserve water resources. Pasco Health's complaint has been assigned Docket No. 070146-WS, and is attached for your reference.

Pasco Health submits this letter to notify the Commission and all parties that its absence from Docket No. 060122-WU should not be interpreted as a concession or agreement that Aloha's service availability policies are fair, just, reasonable, or nondiscriminatory. To the contrary, Pasco Health's challenges to Aloha's service availability policy are set forth in the attached complaint and remain pending in Docket No. 070146-WS.
