Pat left a voice-mail message saying he didn't realize he'd actually sent the first document and that the second document has a few more names on the cert of service. However, since we have already numbered and entered the first document we will treat it as the filing and place this second submission in "non e-filings", and place a copy of this e-mail in the correspondence file for the docket.

Matilda, please print this e-mail Friday morning for the correspondence side of the docket, and move the e-mail to the "non" folder.

Thanks for calling back, Pat.

Jane, I gave Felicia copies of the pages from the last volume where discussion of the wording takes place, also gave her the page from Blake's cross where the wording was redacted.

She talked with Rick and he suggested giving advance TR copies to Hoffman, Tyler, and Culpepper so they can review advise if other than what we've done should be done.

Let's talk about this Monday morning.

Kay

Please note: Florida has a very broad public records law. Most written communications to or from state officials regarding state business are considered to be public records and will be made available to the public and to the media upon request. Therefore, your e-mail message may be subject to public disclosure.
