Dear Mr. Burkholder:

The Commission received your request for cancellation of the company's IXC and CLEC certificates and I need further information before we can proceed. We can cancel the certificates voluntarily, which is when a company pays all outstanding Regulatory Assessment Fees plus the current year's fees and leaves in good standing, or involuntarily, which is when certificates are cancelled on the Commission's own motion for violation of a rule or statute. Although your letter stated the company ceased operating in Florida in August 2006, we were not notified at that time. As information, the company would owe the 2006 fees regardless since the

Regulatory Assessment Fee is owed if certificates are active for any day during a calendar year. And, since we were not notified that the company wished to cancel its certificates until 2007, it also owes the 2007 fees.

Both certificates owe a $3 late payment charge for late payment of the 2005 Regulatory Assessment Fees, plus they owe the 2006 and 2007 Regulatory Assessment Fees, and the late payment charge for the 2006 fees (2006 fees were due January 30, 2007). If the company owes the minimum amount and if payment is postmarked by April 16, 2007, the total due is $224 ($112 for each certificate). That is broken down as follows:

- $ 3 late payment for 2005 fee, TJ868 ✓
- $ 3 late payment for 2005 fee, TX738 ✓
- $50 Regulatory Assessment Fee for 2006 for TJ868 ✓
- $50 Regulatory Assessment Fee for 2006 for TX738 ✓
- $ 9 late payment for 2006 fee, TJ868 ✓
- 2006 fee, TX738 ✓
