¹ The OPC document requests to which FPL is responding here were entitled "Citizen's Third Request to Produce Documents to Florida Power & Light Company (Nos. 8-14)." However, that was the result of mistaken numbering. Previously, OPC has only served one document request in this docket, so the current document requests should have been designated as the second set and numbered 2 through 8. The confusion arose because OPC had served a second set of document requests numbered 2 through 7 in this docket that were actually directed to Environmental Cost Recovery Clause issues and thus intended for Docket No. 070007-EI. When OPC discovered that those document requests had been served in the wrong docket, they were withdrawn and re-served in Docket No. 070007-EI.
