Mr. McWhirter,

The attached document you submitted does not meet the Commission's e-filing requirements. Please see e-filing requirements on our website (<http://www.psc.state.fl.us/dockets/e-filings/>), in particular:

Filing does not include official electronic signature. Documents shall be signed by typing "s/" followed by the signatory: s/ First M. Last

The e-mail message transmitting the document(s) to be filed is not itself considered a filing. Therefore, documents contained within the text of an e-mail transmission will not be considered filed.

Your document will need to be revised and resubmitted in order to be accepted for filing.

Please feel free to call if you have any questions.

Mr. Butler,

On review of the attached replacement filing, it appears there are no changes between this document and DN 02542-07 which your office filed earlier today. As such, it will be considered a duplicate and will not be accepted as an official filing. If there are any changes to the document, however, it will need to reflect the revision in the title and resubmitted for filing. If you have any questions, please feel free to call.

Mr. Butler,

Unfortunately, once a document is filed and document numbered, it can not be "unfiled." The documents which were attached to the filing received at 3:36 p.m. had already been printed and document numbered before we received your message below. Those documents have been entered into the docket file (DNs 02542-07 and 02543-07). Please call if you have any questions.

Please disregard this filing and do not post it in the docket file. It was sent from my office by mistake. I will file and serve the correct Notice shortly. I apologize for the confusion. Best regards, John Butler
