NEUTRAL TANDEM’S NOTICE OF VOLUNTARY DISMISSAL OF PETITION

Petitioner, Neutral Tandem, Inc. (“Neutral Tandem”), hereby respectfully submits this Notice of Voluntary Dismissal, without prejudice, of its Petition in this Docket. By this Notice, Neutral Tandem withdraws both the original version filed February 26, 2007, and its motion to amend the Petition submitted on July 5, 2007. In support of this Notice, Neutral Tandem states as follows:

1. On February 26, 2007, Neutral Tandem filed a Petition for Interconnection and Request for Expedited Resolution of a dispute with Level 3 Communications (Level 3) regarding the termination of traffic to Level 3's network by Neutral Tandem.
2. On July 5, 2007, Neutral Tandem filed a motion to amend its Petition. Neutral Tandem sought to amend its Petition in order to include additional information that Neutral Tandem believes is relevant to the Commission’s consideration of this case.
3. Neutral Tandem believes its motion to amend its Petition was appropriate under applicable procedural rules and case law. However, in order to alleviate any potential procedural concerns regarding the Commission’s ability to consider Neutral Tandem’s amended Petition, Neutral Tandem is voluntarily dismissing its Petition without prejudice. Neutral Tandem will re-submit a new Petition for the Commission’s consideration promptly.
4. The Florida Commission has recognized time and again, the right of a petitioner to take a voluntary dismissal is absolute, and that once the voluntary dismissal is taken, the trial court, in this instance the Commission, loses its jurisdiction to act. See Order No. PSC-02-1559-FOF-TP; Order No. PSC-01-0082-FOF-EI; Order No. PSC-07-0485-FOF-EI; citing Fears v. Lunsford, 314 So. 2d 578, 579 (Fla. 1975); and Randle-Eastern Ambulance Service, Inc. v. Vasta, Elena, etc., 360 So. 2d 68, 69 (Fla. 1978).¹

Thus, for all reasons set forth herein, Neutral Tandem respectfully requests that the Commission acknowledge Neutral Tandem's Notice of Voluntary Dismissal, without prejudice.

Respectfully submitted,

NEUTRAL TANDEM, INC.

¹ As a general matter, an agency has broad authority to accept a voluntary dismissal. Notably, in administrative law, rejection of a voluntary dismissal has been recognized as appropriate only in permitting proceedings or certificate applications, wherein the agency has clear jurisdiction to regulate the ongoing activities of the applicant and the applicant has no right to decline regulation by the agency, or when an evidentiary hearing has been completed. See Order No. PSC-07-0297-FOF-SU, issued in Docket No. 020640-SU; Order No. PSC-96-0992-FOF-WS, issued in Docket No. 950758-WS; and Saddlebrook Resorts, Inc. v. Wiregrass Ranch, Inc., 645 So. 2d 374 (Fla. 1994) (a permitting proceeding in which an intervenor other than the applicant sought to voluntarily dismiss); also citing Middlebrooks v. St. Johns Water Management District, 529 So. 2d 1167 (Fla. 5th DCA 1988)(finding that once the hearing officer has heard the case, and the evidentiary record is established, it is too late for voluntary dismissal, because the Board cannot deviate from the hearing officer's findings of fact; rather, they can only reach different conclusions of law. Thus, the remaining proceedings before the Board were deemed more akin to post-verdict proceedings). Neither is applicable here. This is not a permitting proceeding, and an evidentiary hearing on the disputed issues of fact has not been conducted.
