In re: Petition of BellSouth for Relief from Carrier-of-Last-Resort Obligations Pursuant To Florida Statutes §364.025(6)(d)) Docket No: 060822-TL) Filed: July 20, 2007)

AT&T FLORIDA'S REQUEST FOR SPECIFIED CONFIDENTIAL CLASSIFICATION

COMES NOW, BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. d/b/a AT&T Florida ("AT&T Florida"), pursuant to Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code, and Section 364.183, Florida Statutes, files its Request for Specified Confidential Classification.

1. On July 19, 2007, AT&T Florida filed its Supplemental Response to Nocatee Development Company, SONOC Company, LLC, Toll Hacksonville Limited Partnership, Pulte Home Corporation and Parc Group, Inc.'s (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Nocatee") Second Request for Production of Documents (No. 4) along with a Notice of Intent to Request Specified Confidential Classification. The documents produced in Response to Request for Production No. 4 contain information that is confidential and proprietary to AT&T Florida.

2. On July 20, 2007, AT&T Florida filed its Second Supplemental Response to Nocatee's Second Request for Production of Documents (No. 4). The documents produced in Response to Request for Production No. 4 contain information that is confidential and proprietary to AT&T Florida.

3. Pursuant to Rule 25-22.06(3)(a), AT&T Florida hereby files this Request for Specified Confidential Classification because the information contained in AT&T Florida's Supplemental Response to Nocatee's Second Request for Production No. 4 and

AT&T Florida's Second Supplemental Response to Nocatee's Second Request for Production No. 4 contain confidential business information related to competitive interests utilized by AT&T Florida to conduct its business. A more specific description of this information is contained in Attachment A. In addition, public disclosure of this information would cause harm to AT&T Florida. Therefore, such information should be classified as confidential business information pursuant to Section 364.183, Florida Statutes. Accordingly, it should be held exempt from the public disclosure requirements of Section 119.07, Florida Statutes.

4. Attachment A to AT&T Florida's Request for Confidential Classification contains an explanation of the proprietary information along with a list that identifies the location of the information designated by AT&T Florida as confidential.

5. Attachment B to AT&T Florida's Request for Confidential Classification is redacted copies of the document containing the confidential information.

6. Attachment C to AT&T Florida's Request for Confidential Classification is a highlighted copy of the document containing the confidential information.

7. The original of this Request was filed today with the Office of the Commission Clerk and a copy was served on the Parties.

WHEREFORE, based on the foregoing, AT&T Florida respectfully requests that, pursuant to Section 364.183, Florida Statutes, the Commission enter an order declaring the information described above to be confidential, proprietary business information that is not subject to public disclosure.

Respectfully submitted this 20th day of July, 2007.

Explanation of Proprietary Information

1. This information contains confidential business information related to the competitive interests of AT&T Florida that is proprietary to AT&T Florida. Specifically, this information relates to AT&T Florida's estimated costs for network deployment that are not publicly available. This information further contains AT&T Florida's Network Cost Design jobs that provide information related to how AT&T Florida determines the cost of this project and/or other projects. These documents are not publicly available. Disclosure of this data would impair the competitive business and cause harm to AT&T Florida. Consequently, this information should be classified as proprietary, confidential business information pursuant to Section 364.183(3)(e), Florida Statutes and is exempt from the Open Records Act.
2. This information contains confidential business information related to the competitive interests of AT&T Florida that is proprietary to AT&T Florida. Specifically, this information further contains network drawings that provide information related to how AT&T Florida determines the cost of the project and the anticipated placement of AT&T Florida's facilities. These documents are not publicly available. Disclosure of this data would impair the competitive business and cause harm to AT&T Florida. Consequently, this information should be classified as proprietary, confidential business information pursuant to Section 364.183(3)(e), Florida Statutes and is exempt from the Open Records Act.
