SECTION OF RFP, AT PAGES 12-13

Any contract between Tampa Electric and Respondent will contain a provision addressing the potential that Tampa Electric may, at any time during the term of such contract, fail to obtain or be denied the authorization of the FPSC to recover from Tampa Electric's customers payments made to Respondent under the contract. The contract provision will provide that in the event of any such cost recovery disallowance, and in the absence of any fraud, mistake or similar ground attributable to Tampa Electric, both parties will negotiate in good faith a complete and proper solution to such disallowance.
