Kim,

If you are the correct person for this, I would appreciate your assistance. Please see request below.

Though Mr. [REDACTED] is incorrect in his statements below regarding the law about this disclosure, I believe that we may redact his name from the online version of paragraph 17 of Document No. 01191-07 (link below). In this paragraph, his name appears twice: [REDACTED] and Mr. [REDACTED]. Such action would be consistent with the steps we have taken recently when a request has been made to remove personal information.

Thank you,
 Jamie

Adam,

On page 17 of the above document, there is a paragraph about bankruptcy. I will bring a hard copy of the page up to you. Mr. , the owner of the CLEC at the time, now has problems because of the paragraph in the application.

He requests that we remove the paragraph from the document on our website. Mr. 's phone number is [REDACTED] and his e-mail address is: [REDACTED]

I gave him your name and phone number but asked him not to call as we would get back to him. Only call if he does not hear back from us in a reasonable amount of time. Mr. also states that the bankruptcy laws do not require him to disclose the information he disclosed after a certain number of years, which he said has passed.

I am on the way up with the printed record.
