Subject: Re: 070552-TP - Petition and complaint of MetroPCS againstAT&T and certain small LECS

Laura and Adam,

I have been advised that MetroPCS and AT&T have reached a tentative settlement of several outstanding issues, including this docket. While the settlement has not yet been executed, it is expected to occur soon.

Accordingly, there is no need at this time to proceed with mediation or to address the outstanding motions and response.

It is my understanding that when the settlement is executed, MetroPCS will dismiss its petition in this docket.

I will keep you posted. If you have any questions, please let me know.

Thanks.

Good Morning,

It is staff's understanding that the parties may try to mediate this dispute. If this is the case, could we please get a note stating such to be placed in the docket file - - an e-mail would be fine. If this is not the case, we will prepare to move forward on any pending matters.

Thanks
