have two more in question

Hometown America, for $240.80, they just sent the check in and I can't find this company in the Raf system, Do you know what this is for?

NSC Communications, for $536.44, please let me know the breakdown of the $500.00. I know the $36.4400 is for a late fee in 004

Thanks

Docket No. 070383-TC - NSC
Communications Public Services
Corporation (TG977)

Dear Mr. King:

The Regulatory Assessment Fee (RAF) is due every January 30th based on payphone revenues for the prior year. If a company had no revenues then the RAF return form and minimum fee are due by January 30th.

In this case, the 2006 RAF return forms were mailed December 15, 2006, and payment was due by January 30, 2007. When payment was not received, a delinquent notice was sent via certified mail. The notice stated that if payment of the fee was not paid within 15 days of receipt, an automatic fine of $500 for a first offense, $1,000 for a second offense, and $2,000 for a third offense would be imposed. The delinquent notice was delivered on February 23, 2007, which meant payment had to be postmarked by March 10th to avoid the automatic fine. Payment was postmarked April 6, 2007.

Order No. PSC-07-0589-PAA-TC was issued on July 19, 2007, which required payment of any past due fees plus the $500 fine by August 9th or the payphone certificate will be automatically cancelled. The company's other option was to protest the Order and request a hearing by August 9th.

The company has a small balance of $36.44 for late payment of the 2004 fee. I am attaching a breakdown of the balance and a copy of the certified receipt showing when the delinquent notice was received.

I am getting ready to close this docket and wondered if you were aware that the company's payphone certificate was about to be cancelled. If the company is interested in keeping its certificate, please send the fine and past due amount (total due is $536.44) as soon as possible. Please let me know your decision as soon as possible. Thanks.
